Dear President Yeltsin:

It is my pleasure to invite you to participate as a featured speaker at the Second Annual European Chairmen's Symposium to be held July 7-9, 1993 at the Hilton Hotel in Berlin. Organized jointly by The Wall Street Journal Europe and Handelsblatt, next year's event will build further on the success of our 1992 Symposium. A copy of our 1992 program is enclosed for your review.

The 1993 symposium will be limited exclusively to chairmen, presidents, and CEOs from the largest multinationals from throughout Europe, Asia and North America and will focus on a number of important issues confronting corporate leaders as they plan future European growth strategies. These include investment in central and eastern Europe, the forging of corporate alliances, European monetary union and European competitiveness in the year 2000.

Our two-day corporate summit also will offer opportunities for informal contact and discussion with leading European and U.S. government officials, as well as peers from other major multinational companies.

In the next few weeks, Richard Weiss, the executive director of this project, will contact your office to provide you with additional information and to discuss the possibility of your participating as one of our guest speakers. If you have any questions in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact either me or Mr. Weiss. (Telephone: 212-808-6612)

We hope that your schedule will permit you to join us at our 1993 European Chairmen's Symposium, and we look forward to discussing this with you in the near future.

Sincerely,

11-3998p
