Mr. Rurikov,

Please find enclosed your appearance on our weekend show in October.

Thank you for taking out time today to talk about an NBC interview with President Yeltsin and anchorman Tom Brokaw during the upcoming Summit.
As I mentioned, NBC is proud to have newly acquired "Superchannel" which is seen in 53 million homes in Europe.
We see this as a competitive advantage over the other U.S. networks and would like to showcase the Russian President's views around the world on an exclusive basis.

I look forward to speaking with you over the next few weeks.
