Dear Mr. Kostikov:

I would like to follow up on Mr. Ted Turner's invitation to you to address the 5th CNN World Report Contributors Conference.

This conference will be held from May 1 through 5 at CNN headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. We have scheduled a discussion of changes in Russia and Eastern Europe for Tuesday morning, May 3rd. Your presentation, if you are able to accept Mr. Turner's invitation, would begin this segment of the conference.

The conference opens on Sunday evening, May 1, with a reception that marks the inauguration of CNN's new international production facility. On Monday morning, May 2, we will hear from CNN executives and a leading figure at the United Nations. The rest of the day will be devoted to discussion of Mideast peace, with planned presentations by Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and PLO chairman Yasser Arafat.

Other highlights of the conference include a presentation via satellite on Tuesday afternoon by South African President F.W. deKlerk and ANC leader Nelson Mandela. On Wednesday, we will turn our attention to world population issues and the impact of TV on the world's indigenous peoples.

We would be honored if you could join us as a speaker on Tuesday, May 3rd. We would also welcome your participation throughout the week as we address the major problems facing the world today.

CNN will pay for your roundtrip airfare business class from Moscow to Atlanta and from Atlanta to Moscow. We will also pay for your hotel room at the Omni Hotel in CNN Center.

We look forward to hearing from you about this invitation.

Sincerely,

Nancy E. Peckenham
 Executive Producer
 CNN World Report
