A Work of International Importance

Extending a 95-year Marquis Who's Who tradition of biographical excellence, the Twelfth Edition of Marquis WHO'S WHO IN THE WORLD will recognize individuals distinguished by their achievements and positions throughout the world. With its first publication in 1970, Marquis WHO'S WHO IN THE WORLD established itself worldwide as the foremost biographical guide to outstanding and influential international figures.

To complete this essential record, we need your cooperation in updating your biography. If selected for inclusion, your profile will be used by your professional peers, as well as students, historians, teachers, researchers, journalists, and biographers—all of whom rely upon Marquis WHO'S WHO IN THE WORLD for its accuracy and authoritativeness. For the forthcoming Twelfth Edition, the Marquis Who's Who editorial staff will select and compile the profiles of 35,000 individuals—a process that limits the distinction to one in every 155,000 individuals on the face of the globe.

One Principle Governs Selection

Selection is based solely on present reference value. Individuals are listed either because of their positions or because their noteworthy achievements are of lasting value to humankind; usually, the two go hand in hand. Fame alone is not the criterion, nor is high financial or social status. Only demonstrated accomplishment can place a Biographee in Marquis WHO'S WHO IN THE WORLD.

Among those included by virtue of position will be:

Heads of state
Preeminent government figures
Leaders of political parties
Ambassadors and other diplomats
Heads of stock and commodity exchanges
Leaders of multinational corporations
Directors of outstanding private and national libraries and museums
Distinguished educators, authors, and public figures

Heads of religious, professional, and scientific organizations
Preeminent scientists
Outstanding musicians, dancers, and other performing artists
High-ranking legal officials
Important media representatives

Your Biographical Profile

The biographical data presented in Marquis WHO'S WHO IN THE WORLD comes from the most authoritative sources available—the Biographees themselves. Nearly a century of experience in publishing biographical materials has shown us that only with your participation can we maintain our standard of accuracy. That is why we ask your immediate response to our request for updated information.

Those profiled in the Twelfth Edition will receive proofs of their sketches, providing opportunities to verify the information presented. Your participation, and the resultant accuracy of your sketch, will be appreciated by our editors and reference audience.
