Mr. Vyacheslav Kostikov
Office of the President
The Kremlin
Moscow, Russia

Tuesday, November 15, 1994

Dear Mr. Kostikov:

I am writing to request a television interview with President Boris Yeltsin during the G7 Summit in Halifax next June, on behalf of the Canadian Television Network's morning news and current affairs show, Canada AM.

Canada AM is the nation's longest running morning news and information program, and it has the largest national viewership of any morning show of its genre. Co-hosts Keith Morrison and Valerie Pringle - both highly respected Canadian journalists - often interview leaders and newsmakers from around the world, helping to provide meaningful insight into international issues for our viewers.

Canada AM is available on CTV's 25 affiliated stations across Canada, and can be seen in several American states south of the international border as well. As such, we feel that Canada AM would be a fitting venue for the President to express his views on the summit.

CTV News maintains an active international presence with news bureaux in Washington, London, Beijing, Jerusalem and Moscow. Our international bureaux and affiliates allow the network the ability to conduct interviews in virtually any location. In this particular case, we wish to interview the President in Halifax during the June 16-18 summit.

We propose that the interview be conducted live, or that it be taped if a live interview cannot be scheduled. The interview itself will be about ten minutes in length.

If you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at (416) 609-7377 or, via fax, at (416) 609-7391. I look forward to speaking with you in the future.

With regards,

Ali Velshi
