Honored Sir:

I am an American of German origin. My grandparents were subjects of the Russian Empire. They came to the US in 1912.

I was struck by the moving photograph in our newspaper showing you by your mother on the day of her funeral. I also lost my mother a couple of years ago and felt the pain in your tears.

I just wanted you to know that she has not left you. During quite moments of reflection, I close my eyes sometimes and think of her and there she is...consoling me, counseling me, admonishing me as when I was a boy.

This your mother will do for you, I am certain of it!

Godspeed to you, sir, in your struggles and efforts. I feel that with your leadership, Russia will come through these difficulties and I am encouraged and gratified by the help from our President and government.

Sincerely,

William Gordon Kirstein

Dear Mr. Yeltsin:

You don't know us but we have seen you through the television news. We are just ordinary American people, parents of 3 grown up children, and you are our brother in Christ.

We have been watching the news and saw what you have been going through, and our hearts have been touched. We thank God we gave you the strength and courage to carry on as you face up to the difficulties you have been and are still going through.

Last evening (Sunday-3/28) we were so happy as we saw you stood up tall with a smile and waved to your people on the street thanking them for their support and trust in you when your Congress did not succeed in impeaching you. We too were so happy and overjoyed for you + your people.

May the Great God of Heaven give you wisdom from on high to rule and serve your dear people. They need to be free to live and make choices for themselves. With all the faults and crime in America, we still love her and the freedom we enjoy while we can.

We saw you at your dear mother's side. It was very emotional and heartbreaking. We shed tears as we watched you stand there sadly looking at your mother for the last time. You went <sup>through</sup> a lot, but may it comfort you to know that others were with you at your time of sorrow.

Your precious mom raised a beautiful, strong and courageous son, you Mr. Boris Yeltsin. No doubt she was a very proud mother!! God bless her as she went to her rest till Jesus comes.

May God be with you as you lead on, and to your dear wife, children and family as they give you love, support and encouragement.

We Love You All!

Dear President Yeltsin:

This morning I read of your mother's funeral in our local newspaper. I would like to extend to you my deepest sympathies in the loss of your mother. It is a difficult thing to lose one's parent at any age in life, particularly in circumstances as trying as those you are currently experiencing. I hope you are finding some comfort from other family members and friends.

Please know that you have the support of many people in my country. We know that you are facing a formidable challenge, and we hope that you will weather the storm and be able to continue to lead your country through these difficult times. Great numbers of us are praying for you and for Russia, in our homes and our churches.

I am not at all certain that this letter will reach you, but it is my sincerest hope that it will. I send you and my family's best wishes.

 I fly to you
 O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother.

To You...

I come;
 before you I stand
 sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother...

of the Word Incarnate
 despise not my petitions
 but in your mercy
 hear and answer me.

Amen.

(Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father).

Canticle of Mary

*My being proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit finds joy in God my savior,
For he has looked upon his servant in her lowliness;
all ages to come shall call me blessed.
God who is mighty has done great things for me,
holy is his name;
His mercy is from age to age on those who fear him.
He has shown might with his arm;
he has confused the proud in their inmost thoughts.
He has deposed the mighty from their thrones
and raised the lowly to high places.
The hungry he has given every good thing,
while the rich he has sent empty away.
He has upheld Israel his servant, ever mindful of his mercy;
Even as he promised our fathers,
promised Abraham and his descendants forever.*

Dear Mr President:-

333a

I was sorry to learn of the demise of your mother, I know she was a very warm hearted person, I know words can't be much comfort at such a time, but I do want to send you my deepest sympathy.

I wish you strength and wisdom.
