Igor Smirnov was born on 6 July 1944 in Moscow. He spent his childhood on the streets around the Arbat and on Gogol boulevard.

Igor Smirnov studied at Moscow and Leningrad art schools. He graduated from Moscow Art College. Since 1970, he has painted canvasses, and worked as mosaic lay-out interior designer, as well as caricaturist and editor for various newspapers, magazines and books.

Member of the Moscow Union of Artists and International Federation of Artists (IFA), and the Moscow Union of Journalists. He is an Academician of the International Academy for Culture under the Fund for People's Diplomacy, and Academician of the French Caricaturists Academy. He is listed in the "Dictionary of International Biography" (XXIII ed.) and the "International Who's Who of Intellectuals" (X ed.) both published by the Cambridge International Biographical Centre.

Since 1971, he has taken part in more than 250 exhibitions in Russia and other countries, including Canada, USA, Mexico, Cuba, Brazil, Holland, England, Belgium, Germany, France, Turkey, Poland, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Romania, Czechoslovakia, Italy, Spain, Australia, the Phillipines, and Japan. His works of art are displayed in museums, art galleries and individual collections in these countries.

Igor Smirnov has been awarded more than 40 prizes at international contests in Russia and other countries:
